C. Measure C Transit Oriented Development (TOD) Program Cycle VII Funding Recommendation (Kristine Cai/Trai Her-Cole) [APPROVE]

Summary: Measure C's Transit-Oriented Development (TOD) program was created to boost transit ridership and encourage transit supportive land use, such as higher density residential and mixed-use development. The program provides funding for three types of projects: infrastructure, planning, and housing infill incentives. TOD-funded projects are intended to improve access to transit facilities, reduce vehicle miles traveled (VMT), and contribute to the sense of place in transit-oriented communities. TOD projects will further our region's sustainability goals, such as reducing greenhouse gas emissions and air quality improvement.

TOD program Cycle VII has $2,030,000 available, and received seven applications from four jurisdictions totaling $1,993,079. These funding applications are:

1. Landmark Commons, City of Clovis

The City of Clovis would use $300,000 at the Landmark Commons project to construct a sheltered bus stop at the new Clovis Transit Hub.

2. Francher Creek Trail Project, City of Fresno

The City of Fresno requested $475,219 for the Francher Creek Trail Project, which will connect senior housing in the Francher Creek community to FAX transit services.

3. Merced Street Reconnection Project, City of Fresno

The City of Fresno applied for $75,000 toward the Merced Street Reconnection Project. Funding will be used for engineering plans that address connectivity problems between Hotel Fresno and the BRT station at Courthouse Park. The plans could help the project become "shelf-ready" for future state and federal grant funding.

4. Transit-Oriented Tower, City of Fresno

The City of Fresno requested $347,860 for the Transit-Oriented Tower project, which would reconfigure the transit stop at Van Ness and Olive. This will provide improved access to transit for residents in the Tower District.

5. Kings Canyon TOD Connectivity Plan, City of Fresno

The City of Fresno sought $325,000 to develop a Kings Canyon TOD Connectivity Plan. The Plan will identify the area along the Kings Canyon Bus Rapid Transit corridor that has the highest potential for transit-oriented development, and formulate a station area plan template that can be applied regionally.

6. Selma Downtown and Civic Centre Transit Oriented Improvement, City of Selma

The City of Selma applied for $270,000 to relocate a transit stop and make sidewalk, ramp and crossing improvements at various locations in downtown.

7. Reedley Family Apartments – Phase II, City of Reedley

The City of Reedley requested $200,000 to offset development impact fees associated with the second phase of Reedley Family Apartments.

All seven applications received the minimum average score of 70 or above, and the TOD Scoring

Committee unanimously recommended funding all the seven applications.

Action: Staff requests that TTC/PAC recommend the Policy Board approve funding for all seven applications to the Measure C TOD Program Cycle VII, for a total of $1,993,079.

D. Fresno County Trails Master Plan Update Consultant Selection (Peggy Arnest) [APPROVE]

 Scope of Work

Summary: Fresno COG issued a request for proposals in February 2019 for the Fresno County Trails Master Plan Update and received only one proposal, from Toole Design. This same team is working with the City of Fresno on its Trail Network Expansion Feasibility Plan. Furthermore, Toole's local sub-consultants are firms with which Fresno COG often works and has good relationships.

A scoring committee, which included representatives from Fresno COG, Fresno County, Fresno Cycling Club and the off-road bicycling community, reviewed the proposal and unanimously recommends Toole Design be selected as the consultant to conduct the Fresno County Trails Master Plan Update.

The scope of work for the project is attached to this item.
