

Expression of Interest to serve on the Measure C Renewal Committee

The Measure C Renewal Committee is responsible for developing both a draft and final expenditure plan for the proposed 2026 Measure C sales tax extension, which will be placed on the 2026 ballot. Committee members will engage in a collaborative, participatory process, contributing their expertise and perspectives as representatives of Fresno County taxpayers. Their work will help ensure that the renewal plan reflects the community's needs and priorities for improvements throughout the region. Committee members may expect to meet monthly for up to two hours at minimum, with the first meeting anticipated to be a half-day. Additional topic specific subcommittees will also meet. Only Fresno County residents are eligible to sit on the committee.
